

Architectural section drawing of a building, showing a long, narrow structure with a central corridor and multiple rooms. The drawing includes detailed annotations for structural elements, materials, and dimensions. Key features include a central corridor with a staircase, rooms with various furniture and fixtures, and a large open area on the right side. The drawing is oriented vertically on the page.

DOSS

